

Speak Life: From Mouth to Miracle

Week 5: Say What You Hear from Heaven

Scripture: Ezekiel 37:4 (ESV) - "Then He said to me, 'Prophesy to these bones and say to them, Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord!'"

1. Prophetic _____ Precedes _____.

Scripture: Ezekiel 37:4-7

- God didn't ask Ezekiel to report on the bones—He told him to _____.
- Miracles begin when we say what God said, not what we _____.
- Life doesn't return until the _____ is spoken.

2. Faith Speaks in _____ Places.

Scripture: Ezekiel 37:2

- The bones were "very dry"—hopeless, beyond _____ repair.
- Faith doesn't deny dryness; it _____ life despite dryness.
- God doesn't need moisture—He needs _____ willing to speak.

3. God Doesn't Need _____, Just _____.

Scripture: Ezekiel 37:9-10

- Ezekiel obeyed exactly what God said—and _____ entered the bones.
- God supplies the power, but He uses our _____.
- If you want to see the miraculous, you must be willing to say the _____.

R.A.P. Challenge

Reflect: What dry area of your life have you been speaking death over?

Act: This week, write a declaration of faith based on Scripture and speak it daily over that area.

Pray: "God, help me to hear You clearly and speak boldly. Let my words align with Your truth so that life can come to every dry place I face."
