God's Yes × My Yes = Unimaginable Blessings

Week 4: The Blessing on the Other Side of Yes

Genesis 22:1–18

1: Yes Requires Trusting the Outcome to God

- Obedience means moving even when God hasn't revealed the _____.
- Trust grows when I obey God without knowing the full _____.
- My yes becomes powerful when I believe God's heart more than my _____.

2: Yes Attracts Provision

- Provision meets me on the other side of _____.
- God always has a _____ waiting on the mountain of obedience.
- When I say yes, God supplies what I _____.

3: Yes Multiplies Legacy

- My obedience today impacts my family _____.
- A yes to God plants seeds that bless _____.
- Legacy is built when I choose obedience over _____.

R.A.P. Challenge (Reflect – Act – Pray)

Reflect: Where have you been holding back a yes because you're unsure of the outcome?

Act: Take one bold action of obedience this week — even if it stretches your comfort.

Pray: "Lord, I trust You with my yes. Lead me, provide for me, and use my obedience to bless generations after me."
