

GOD'S CROSSOVER:

When God Changes the Game

Week 3

The Divine Detour

Acts 16:6–10

Closed Doors Are Often God's Protection

God sees _____ we cannot see.

God's "No" is often an expression of His _____.

Closed doors strengthen our _____ on God.

God Redirects People Who Are Already Moving

God guides _____ people.

Detours often reveal _____ assignments.

God's plans exceed our _____.

Your Detour May Become Someone Else's Deliverance

Your obedience opens _____ for others.

Your suffering may position you for _____.

God's detours always serve His _____.

R.A.P. Challenge

Reflect: What closed door or unexpected detour have you been viewing as a disappointment instead of possible divine direction?

Act: This week, stop asking God to reopen one closed door. Instead, ask Him to reveal the new direction He wants you to pursue and take one step of obedience toward it.

Pray: "Father, thank You for guiding my life even when I don't understand Your direction. Help me trust that every closed door is either Your protection or Your preparation. Give me the faith to follow wherever You lead, knowing that Your plans are always greater than mine. In Jesus' name, Amen."