- C. Surrender has to happen again _____.

3: WHEN SELF DIES, CHRIST MULTIPLIES

- A. Dying to self doesn't erase your identity—it _____ it.
- B. What you surrender to Christ becomes more _____ in His hands.
- C. Your surrender can produce _____ in people you'll never meet.

R.A.P. CHALLENGE

Reflect: Ask yourself: “What part of the old me am I still protecting that God is asking me to surrender?”

Act: Choose one concrete act of surrender this week. Apologize. Forgive. Give. Serve. Stop the habit. Have the conversation. Ask for accountability. Obey the instruction God has already given you.

Pray: Ask God to reveal anything in you that competes with His authority. Pray for the courage to deny yourself, take up your cross daily, and follow Christ. Ask Him to take what you surrender and produce fruit through your life that reaches beyond you and blesses generations to come.
